

Applications

- Apply direct to the institution
- There is no central clearing house like UCAS
- May take the form of an informal letter or...
- Completion of their application form
- Plus an explanatory covering letter explaining your reasons for applying.
You should have the expectation of a good result for your degree such as a 1st or a 2.1 in many cases.
- You will need good academic references
- Closing dates vary: Royal College of Art and The Slade by 1st week of January 2009
- Don't delay even if there is no closing date

Interviews

- Selection is by interview and submitting a portfolio in most cases
(submission of portfolios is sometimes well in advance of any interview)
But you should also ask questions....
- ...about academic support, course design and finance
