

Student Financial Support – Master’s Degree Students For Students Resident in England 2021-22

Hereford College of Arts Tuition Fee Full Time Study (45 Weeks)

The tuition fee for 2021-22 has been set at £6,000 for non-HCA graduates to study the MA full time (45 weeks) and £5,500 for HCA graduates who completed an undergraduate course at HCA within the last 2 academic years.

For Students from England support is available from Student Finance England (SFE) and the Student Loans Company (SLC)

Postgraduate Loans

Postgraduate Loans are available from Student Finance England for up to £11,570 as a contribution towards course and living costs. If you are studying over two academic years, the loan will be split equally and paid in three instalments each academic year.

Students must be aged under 60 years old at the start of the academic year to be eligible.

You will not be eligible for a Postgraduate Loan if you have already achieved a Master’s Degree, or a qualification that is equivalent or higher.

You should be able to apply for a Postgraduate Loan from June 2021 at www.gov.uk/postgraduateloan.

Disabled Students’ Allowance

Disabled Students’ Allowance (DSAs) may be available if you have a disability or a specific learning difficulty and can include support for dyslexia. DSA’s do not depend on your household income and what you receive depends on your individual needs. For further information see: www.gov.uk/disabled-students-allowances-dsas

For additional information, please contact the Academic Mentoring Team on (01432) 273359 or email helearningsupport@hca.ac.uk.

Repayment of Postgraduate Loans

Postgraduate loans have to be repaid but you will not start paying them back until you are earning £21,000 or above and then you repay 6% above £21,000.
